

West Point Golf Club Roles & Responsibilities

Past President

1. To be an ex-officio member of the Executive with voting rights.
2. To assist the President and the Executive members in performing their respective duties.
3. To chair the Nominating Committee of 3 for 2 years after stepping down as President. He will select one person who is currently serving on the Board, and one person from the full membership, both of whom have good experience of members' characters and qualifications for a position to continue the history and professionalism of the Club. The committee is tasked with selecting the following year's Executive Board.
4. To collate data on and to control "Pace-of-Play.
5. To collate statistics on players' attendance.
6. To be mindful of those members who are suffering from ill-health or who have passed away and to alert the membership accordingly.

November, 2017